Forecast for Tuesday 07 May 2024

Weather: A murky start with mist and fog, especially in the valleys, but brightening up through the morning with plenty of warm, sunny spells in the afternoon. The odd shower possible by the afternoon, though any showers isolated and light; fewer showers expected compared to Monday. These easing into the evening leaving a dry end to the day.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 30% rising to 90% by mid-morning.

Low cloud and visibility: Fog through the morning in the valleys with low cloud around 200-300 m during the early morning, with cloud lifting above summits. Poor to very poor visibility at first other, otherwise excellent visibility is expected across scenic outlooks of the park by mid-morning with a risk of showers temporarily reducing visibility.
